Call to worship

♪ I lift my eyes to the quiet hills
In the press of a busy day;
As green hills stand
In a dusty land
So God is my strength and stay.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills
To a calm that is mine to share;
Secure and still
In the Father's will
And kept by the Father's care.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills
With a prayer as I turn to sleep;
By day, by night,
Through the dark and light
My Shepherd will guard his sheep.

I lift my eyes to the quiet hills
And my heart to the Father's throne;
In all my ways
To the end of days
The Lord will preserve his own.

Prayer

Luke 22:14-23 – The Last Supper

♪ Now, my tongue, the mystery telling
Of the glorious body sing,
And the blood, all price excelling,
Which the Gentiles' Lord and King,
In a virgin's womb once dwelling,
Shed for this world's ransoming.

Given for us, and condescending
To be born for us below,
He, with men in converse blending,
Dwelt the seed of truth to sow,
Till he closed with wondrous ending
His most patient life of woe.

That last night, at supper lying,
Mid the twelve, his chosen band,
Jesus, with the law complying,
Keeps the feast its rites demand;
Then, more precious food supplying,
Gives himself with his own hand.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son,
Honour, might, and praise addressing,
While eternal ages run;
Ever too his love confessing,
Who, from both, with both is one.

Reflection

Prayer

♪ From heaven You came, helpless babe, entered our world, Your glory veiled;
not to be served but to serve,
and give Your life that we might live.

*This is our God, the Servant King,
He calls us now to follow Him,
to bring our lives as a daily offering of worship to the Servant King.*

There in the garden of tears,
my heavy load He chose to bear;
his heart with sorrow was torn,
'Yet not My will but Yours,' He said.

This is our God ...

Come see His hands and His feet,
the scars that speak of sacrifice;
hands that flung stars into space
to cruel nails surrendered.

This is our God ...

So let us learn how to serve,
and in our lives enthrone Him;
each other's needs to prefer,
for it is Christ we're serving.
